WARREN'S
Thrashing Machine.

This Machine, for Thrashing small Grain or Indian Corn, requires but little power, and one man can easily drive the small machine, which costs $35; to thrash from 35 to 50 bushels a day, of grain, and shell double that quantity of Corn.

The next size is driven by one horse, & will thrash from 80 to 100 bushels a day, and will cost $30. The largest size, driven by two horses, costs $40, and will easily thrash 150 bushels a day. The machine is small, perfectly simple in its construction and gives the labourer no trouble to keep it in order.

☞ The undersigned having secured the above right of the Patentee, for the town of Southampton, in the county of Suffolk, and State of New-York, for the making & vending the above mentioned machine, will thankfully receive, and execute any orders at the shortest notice.

THE
NEW-YORK MIRROR,
A REPOSITORY OF POLITE LITERATURE AND THE ARTS:

EMBEZZLED, QUARTERLY, WITH A SPLENDID COPPERPLATE ENGRAVING, AND, WEEKLY, WITH A POPULAR PIECE OF MUSIC, ARRANGED WITH ACCOMPANIMENTS FOR THE PIANO.

EDITED BY GEORGE P. MORRIS.

For the fact that the merits and character of the N. York Mirror have been steadily progressive, we refer to the past. Our arrangements for the future are far more advantageous than any we have hitherto been able to effect, and we therefore feel confidence in asserting that the eighth volume will be much superior in every department, to its predecessors.

It gives us great pleasure to state, that this periodical will hereafter be enriched with ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTIONS from the pens of

JOHN F. SCHROEDER, D. D.
FITZ-GREEN HALLECK,
CHARLES SPRAGUE,
WILLIAM LEGGETT,
JOHN INMAN,
PROSPER M. WETMORE,
JAMES LAWSON,
WILLIAM P. PALMER,
WILLIS G. CLARK,
SAMUEL WOODWORTH,
JAMES SHEA,
C. C. VANARSDALE,
GULIAN C. VERPLANCK,
ROBERT C. SANDS,
JAMES G. BROOKS,
THEODORE S. FAY, and
WILLIAM COX.

Mrs. EMMA EMBURY,
Mrs. MARY E. BROOKS,
Mrs. HARRIET MUZZY,
Miss ELIZABETH BOGART,
Miss SARAH AIKEN, and
Miss A. WOODBRIDGE.

What we have done in the way of embellishments is before the public; what we intend to do, we now submit to their notice. During the year, four fine engravings will be published. Subjects as follows:

I.—Street View in New-York, embracing Park Row, the Park, a portion of Chatham-Street, the Brick Meeting, &c. with all the life and bustle incident to that part of the town.

II.—A View of the Bay and Harbour, studded with islands, and covered with shipping, steamboats, small craft, &c. including a distant sketch of Staten Island and the Narrows, taken from the Battery.

III.—The City of New-York, from the Bay, the North and East Rivers, Hoboken, Weehawk, Brooklyn Heights, Village of Brooklyn, &c.

IV.—Wall street, about the hour of three; the Exchange, the various Banks, and other public institutions.

These drawings have been taken expressly for this work, and will be engraved by eminent artists.

In addition to the foregoing, several wood engravings, executed in the best possible manner, representing old Dutch edifices, will be given; both as a matter of curiosity, and from a desire to preserve from oblivion traces of the dwellings of the early Dutch settlers.

Each number will contain, as heretofore, a popular piece of music arranged for the pianoforte.

The praise which the Mirror has obtained for its typographical neatness, will continue to be deserved.

From the above it is obvious that our expenses must be very materially increased; and we had contemplated, at one time, advancing the price of this paper to five dollars; but in consequence of the unprecedented increase of our circulation, we are induced, in preference, to trust to a still further patronage for an adequate remuneration of our labors.

CONDITIONS.

The Mirror is published every Saturday, at the corner of Nassau and Ann Streets. It is elegantly printed in the Royal quarto form, on fine paper, with brevier and nonpareil type. Fifty-two numbers complete a volume of four hundred and sixteen pages, for which a beautiful ENGRAVED VIGNETTE TITLE PAGE, and a copious index are furnished. There are FOUR DOLLARS per annum PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. It is forwarded by the earliest mails to subscribers residing out of the city of New-York. Communications POST PAID, must be addressed to the Editor. No subscription received for a less period than one year. June, 1830.

In the above list of contributors to the Mirror, are those, whose names are too well known to the literary world, to make their effusions desirable.

Cabinet Ware House!
OLD ESTABLISHMENT!

The subscriber hereby informs the public, that he will sell all kinds of CABINET FURNITURE cheaper than his friend in this Port, who has undertaken to undersell him, and who has pompously advertised that "a penny saved is two pence clear." Let my old customers continue to call at my shop, where the best of work is done by workmen that cannot be excelled in any place, & instead of saving two, they shall save three pence; for I will sell cheaper than the other shop, if I don't get enough for the stuff and trimmings, and for pay, I will take any thing that is offered, at the market price. Fair play is a jewel.—But if the young man chooses to undersell, here's to it. I can sell as cheap as he can, and I hereby solemnly promise my old friends and the public, that I will sell cheaper. Come and see. Elegant FURNITURE on hand, and now is the time to buy cheap.

He has now ready made and for sale, FURNITURE to the amount of from 3 to $4,000, which will be sold cheaper than at any similar establishment and can be ascertained by applying to the subscriber, at his old stand.

Among the articles he has for sale, are the following, viz:

Sideboards, Secretaries, Lockers, Desks, Book-Cases, Bureaus, Dining, End, Card, Pembroke, Toilet, Breakfast and Dressing Tables, Basin and Candle Stands, Sofas, Lolling & Bed Chairs, Clock Cases, Chests & Knife Trays, Portable Desks, Bedsteads of all kinds, &c. &c.

Clinton Academy.

The Summer Session of this Academy, of which Mr. RANDOLPH CAMPBELL, a Graduate of the College of New-Jersey, is Principal, will commence on the 1st Monday in May.

From the recommendations received concerning this gentleman, and from his success thus far, in this institution, the Committee assure the Public, and in so doing express the sentiments of the Board of Trustees and Patrons of the School, that his literary attainments, moral character, and peculiarly appropriate qualifications for the duties of his profession, are such as deservedly entitle him to public patronage.

The course of instruction pursued in this Institution will be adapted to such, as are preparing for admission into College, or for such, as upon the close of their Academic Course, contemplate entering immediately upon the studies of any of the learned professions, or upon mercantile pursuits.

☞ Board may be obtained, in respectable families, for one Dollar and fifty cents per week—and the Committee believe the terms of Tuition are as moderate in this, as in any similar Institution.
